Singapore

Singapore is unique in so many ways. It is the only country in Asia with English as its first language, and it has the highest percentage of foreigners making up its population, making it a diverse and fascinating place to visit. Orchard Road shopping centre is the must visit heart of the city, just waiting to be discovered by you.

Beijing

China's second largest City with a population of 17 Million, it has to be seen and experienced to be believed. Showcased to the world with the Olympic games, the city has now a modern and effective infrastructure. Beijing is renowned for its opulent palaces, temples, and huge stone walls and gates. Its art treasures and universities have long made the city a centre of culture and art in China.

New York

As the song goes, it's so good they named it twice! This is the city that never sleeps, and has so many iconic buildings and places to visit, you will need the 3 night stay to scratch the surface.

Maybe take in a show on Broadway, stroll through Central Park, or even go shopping in some of the finest shops in the world.

Venice

One of the most romantic cities of the world. The city stretches across 117 small islands in the marshy Venetian Lagoon along the Adriatic Sea. The saltwater lagoon stretches along the shoreline between the mouths of the Po and the Piave Rivers. Today there are numerous attractions in Venice, such as St Mark's Basilica, the Grand Canal, and the Piazza San Marco, to name but a few.

Norwegian Gem

This sparkling ship offers up the best of everything from Norwegian Cruise Line. From the four-lane bowling alley in the Bliss Ultra Lounge to a multitude of nightly dining choices, Norwegian Gem has something for everyone. A truly impressive and expansive spa and fitness centre, a pool deck complete with hot tubs and slides, and an incredible variety of staterooms, suites and villas,

Indulge in a hot stone massage at the renowned Lotus Spa, enjoy fine dining in a formal or relaxed atmosphere and make it a cruise to remember.

Sydney

The largest city in Australia, known as the harbour city, with its iconic buildings, like the opera house and the Sydney harbour bridge. The city is home to many prominent parks, such as Hyde Park, Royal Botanical Gardens and national parks. This is a major factor, along with Sydney Harbour, that has led to the city's reputation as one of the most beautiful in the world.

Dubai

Dubai has been called the "shopping capital of the Middle East.", as well as the shopping paradise of the world. Dubai alone has more than 70 shopping malls, and the world's largest shopping mall, Dubai Mall. With the largest man made harbour in the world, it also has some fantastic beach resorts to relax and enjoy the excellent weather.

Auckland

Although this is the largest city in New Zealand, with a population of just 1.4 Million, it is also less crowded than many of its counterparts around the world.

Auckland is popularly known as the "City of Sails" because the harbour is often dotted with hundreds of yachts and has more per capita than any other city in the world.

High Street, Queen Street, Ponsonby Road, and Karangahape Road are very popular with urban socialites., while Otara's and Avondale's flea markets offer a colourful alternative shopping experience.
