Queen Elizabeth

Within Queen Elizabeth's sleek lines, the lavishness of eras past meets the thrilling future of ocean travel. Welcome, then, to the next elegant chapter in Cunard history.

The harmony of classic and contemporary strikes an elegant chord throughout this magnificent ship. Images and features from her predecessors, Queen Elizabeth and QE2, sit comfortably alongside her modern charm.

Grand Princess

Grand Princess is a consummate host at sea, rivaling the most luxurious resorts on land.

Included among myriad features are the Lotus Spa, Movies Under the Stars®, more than 700 balcony staterooms and an entire deck of Mini-Suites, as well as dozens of dining and entertainment options.

Departs 1,8,15,22 & 29 September – 6 & 13 October 2010

Benefits include: 3 Night pre-cruise New York stay, all flights & transfers.

Caribbean Princess

Caribbean Princess is the Grand Daddy of the Princess fleet, with the largest carrying capacity. This ship's 900 balcony staterooms and an entire deck of Mini-Suites offer impressive private vistas. Hallmark features include Movies Under the Stars, the premier Lotus Spa and numerous formal and casual eating options, including the open-kitchen-style Café Caribe. This truly is a 5 Star cruise experience of a lifetime.

New York

As the song goes, it's so good they named it twice! This is the city that never sleeps, and has so many iconic buildings and places to visit, you will need the 3 night stay to scratch the surface.

Maybe take in a show on Broadway, stroll through Central Park, or even go shopping in some of the finest shops in the world.

New England in The Fall: This is one of the 'must see' sights of your life, seeing the swathes of trees turning into a golden patchwork that is as breathtaking as it is beautiful.

Hawaii- Oahu Island - Aloha!

Nicknamed the Gathering place, the Island of Oahu, is an island of activity. Whether you're learning to surf in legendary Waikiki, hiking through the rich rainforests of Waimea Valley, or watching the brilliant pastels of dusk fade off of Sunset Beach, you'll find variety at every turn. World-famous Waikiki was once a playground for Hawaiian royalty. Known in Hawaiian as "spouting waters," Waikiki was introduced to the world when its first hotel was built on its shores in 1901. Today, Waikiki is a vibrant gathering place for visitors from around the world. Along the main strip of Kalakaua Avenue you'll find world-class shopping, dining, entertainment, and hospitality, it has a diverse population, with a fusion of East and West cultures rooted in the values and traditions of the native Hawaiian people. From Hawaiian royalty to Hawaiian Regional Cuisine, Waikiki continues to be an evolving expression of the ancient spirit of aloha.

On these famous shores, the past and the future are uniting in fresh and surprising ways.

South Africa & Cruise The West African Coast

21 nights from only £1,729pp - Departure: 23rd March 2011

Benefits included in the fare: all transfers included.

Artemis

Child-free Artemis is the smallest ship in the P&O fleet. This means she offers a very unique style of cruising. Everything is scaled down, creating an intimate feel on board. Perfect if you prefer a quieter holiday. Her size also means she can visit more unusual ports of call. Making her a good choice for the well travelled.

Cape Town

Cape Town is famous for its sea front and harbour as well as its natural setting in the Cape floral kingdom, including such well-known landmarks as Table Mountain and Cape Point. Cape Town is Africa's most popular holiday destination, as it gives you the opportunity to see the real South Africa.

Majorca and the Mediterranean

8 Nights from only £599pp
Departs: Every Friday May – November 2010

Fare includes: all transfers from airport to hotel and ship.

FREESTYLE CRUISING

Palma, Majorca

Palma offers a rich mix of history, culture and nightlife. The fascinating central area has narrow streets between the high walls of ancient buildings. This compact, easy to walk historic core of the city extends inland from the port and the most prominent of landmarks - the cathedral and royal palace. This really is the Pearl of the Mediterranean.

NCL's Norwegian Jade

Norwegian Jade is one of the newest Jewel class ships and a very special ship. For starters, she's got the most flexible, versatile accommodation on the high seas, from very comfortable inside staterooms to ultra-luxury Courtyard Villas with their own private deck and swimming pool. Of course, because she was purpose built for NCL Freestyle Cruising, you can take your pick of 12 restaurants and dining rooms and 11 bars and lounges, so you can wine and dine where, when and with whoever you like. And with two swimming pools, hot tubs, sports court, fitness centre, casino and so much more, you can play when you like as well.
