OUR HOLIDAY PRICES

Air fares, hotel rates and other holiday costs fluctuate throughout the year, as do special offers which are changed and updated frequently. In order to avoid any pricing inaccuracies, expired offers and general confusion, we do not display detailed price panels in our brochures as these will change after the brochure has gone to print. Our quoted prices will therefore always be more accurate and more competitive. To obtain a detailed and up to date quotation of your holiday cost, kindly contact your local travel agent or call our friendly reservations team on 020 8340 7612, or visit our website www.cyplon.co.uk for up to date special offers, prices and information.

SENSIBLE PRICE MATCHING POLICY

In the unlikely event that you find a like-for-like holiday package cheaper than what we have quoted, we promise to do our utmost to match the price for you unless we deem the price of our competitor to be "not sensible" due to a pricing error. See website for more details.

LOYALTY

To reward our loyal customers, we are delighted to offer a £50 reduction on your next holiday with us, to any of our destinations featured in our brochures. Please note that this discount is only redeemable when booking again via the same Travel Agent.

Continue on to the Blue Grotto and nearby caves enjoying the views of the Mediterranean and the islet of Filfla. Your guide will then help you discover a beautiful unspoilt village.

MDINA TOUR

Being in the centre of Malta, the island's old capital city Mdina is often overlooked by tourists, but it is certainly worth some attention. With this excursion you will walk through the medieval winding streets and appreciate the Baroque architecture and Siculo-Norman palaces. Leave Mdina through the 'Greek Gates' en-route to the cliffs at Dingli. You will also visit the San Anton botanical gardens, the crafts centre at Ta'Qali and the magnificent Mosta's Dome.

Night time brings out a different character in some places, and this tour aims to capture the beauty of Malta by night. Beginning with a visit to Vittoriosa, you will be able to appreciate the Grand Harbour and its magical lighting, followed by a walk around the city's streets and waterfront led by your guide. You will then be driven to Valletta and will walk through Malta's capital city's quaint and beautifully lit streets.

You will then visit the medieval citadel in Victoria and Dwejra bay from where you will marvel at the sunset before enjoying dinner in a local restaurant.

SICILY, MT ETNA & TAORMINA

Malta has a great selection of affordable Luxury Hotels scattered across Malta & Gozo Island, with perfect weather all-year-round......”

LOCATION

A small archipelago, it lies between Sicily and North Africa. It was first populated by Sicilian invaders over 5000 years ago and has since had a succession of different rulers, who valued its strategic importance as a naval base. The capital Valletta was built in 1566 after a massive battle between the Knights of St John and the Ottoman Empire and is one of the finest examples of Baroque architecture in the entire world. Today the island is famous for its vibrant tourist scene, with plenty of destinations that will excite and delight visitors.

WEATHER

The gorgeous Mediterranean climate gives it hot dry summers and mild winters. It has a yearly average temperature of 20 degrees, with the lowest temperature of 13 degrees in January and the highest of 27 degrees in July. Malta receives just 60 cm of annual rainfall, which almost all falls during the late autumn and winter, meaning that anyone who visits at any other time of year is almost assured a dry holiday. The best time to visit is during the hot summer months of June, July and August, although it is pleasant from April all the way through to October.

CUISINE

Maltese cuisine is full of rustic character, colours and flavour as you would expect from a central Mediterranean island and given its geographical position, it takes great influence and inspiration from North African, Spanish and Sicilian cuisines whilst there is also a small trace of British influence left by the Knights of St John. The unofficial national dish of Malta is widely considered to be rabbit stew “fenkata”. If you find yourself on Malta's island of Gozo, be sure to try the local cheese called Ġbejna cooked in a delectable little pastry.

HISTORY & CULTURE

The country has a rich and colourful history that begins around 4500 years ago, when it was colonized by people from the nearby island of Sicily. It became a part of the mighty Phoenician empire in around 1200 BC and was established as a crucial trading post and subsequently Carthage's empire. This ended when Malta was conquered by the Romans during the second Punic War and the island was dominated by Rome for the next 700 years. St. Paul the Apostle was shipwrecked on the island during this time in the aptly named St Paul's Bay and legend has it that he was the person to introduce Christianity to the island. The Ottoman Empire was at the zenith of its power at that time, with most of Europe genuinely scared that they would be overrun by Arab invaders. The Ottomans attacked numerous times between 1550 and 1566, culminating in a massive siege, which the Knights repelled, leading to huge celebrations, throughout Christendom. This led to a massive influx of money into the island and the construction of the fortified city of Valletta. After the order declined, Malta was briefly owned by the French, before becoming British after the defeat of Napoleon and gaining independence in 1964.

Resorts in Malta & Gozo

Malta offers its visitors a fantastic blend of the Mediterranean spice of life and traditional Maltese heritage. With a great choice of resorts in Malta and Gozo, you may want to experience the interesting and diverse resorts of each island, combining a riveting city break in Valletta with a relaxing beach stay in St Julian's. The close proximity of the islands, being just 25-minutes apart with a ferry crossing, also offers you the option of island hopping, exploring the quaint towns of Malta, before heading to Gozo, with its incredible caves, unspoilt natural landscape and tranquil setting, perfect for an alternative experience of the Maltese archipelago. Malta is an ideal place to discover, be it in the summer or winter months, thanks to its 300 days of glorious sunshine.

Taormina Bay, Sicily

Sicily Holidays

The largest island in the Mediterranean, Sicily is located just off the tip of Italy's 'boot'. The majestic crossroads that links the Mediterranean to Africa, Sicily combines an incredibly rich history, with delicious cuisine, a buzzing nightlife and spectacular natural scenery, to form the complete package for anyone looking for a romantic holiday. As an island Sicily boasts its own vibe whilst the culture is classically Italian, however after some 25 centuries of occupation by Phoenicians, Greeks, Carthaginians, Romans and Arabs; the island has inherited influences in cuisine, art and architecture from a mixture of cultures.

“.....
Sicily has something for everyone, including outdoor activities, fine dining and immersive culture

LOCATION

As the largest island in the Mediterranean it lies just off the bottom of the Italian mainland. It is renowned for its rich history that has been influenced by the Greeks, Romans & Byzantines among others. This is combined with incredible natural scenery, including pristine beaches, gorgeous mountainous islands & the dramatic Mt. Etna, Europe's largest volcano, ensuring that there is something for everyone on the island, whether you are looking for a beach holiday, romantic escape or family holiday. It has a big population of over 5 million, meaning that visitors will find all the shops, restaurants & bars that they could possibly ask for.

WEATHER

The beautiful island of Sicily basks in warm, Mediterranean climate, where the summers are hot and winters are mild. Undoubtedly the best time of the year to visit is between the months of June and September, when the temperatures average more than 20 degrees and the sea is warm. In the autumn the weather remains fairly warm and pleasant and early spring enjoys comfortable weather at above 16 degrees, making it ideal for exploring the region. If you travel to Sicily in the winter you can expect mild weather with rain, and temperatures staying above 16 degrees.

CUISINE

Sicilian cuisine is famed for being among the best in Italy (which is no easy feat) and is famed for the quality of its pasta, wine and fish. Pasta was supposedly created on the island and there are a variety of great pasta dishes which all visitors are bound to enjoy. The most common main courses on the island involve either meat or fish, with the most popular being tuna, swordfish or sardines. Sicily is also renowned for the quality of its desserts, with cannoli, cassata and marzipan fruit all authentically Sicilian. The world-famous Marsala is Sicily's most famous wine, which is named after the city that created it.

HISTORY & CULTURE

The island has been inhabited by humans since the Bronze Age, its name was derived from the 'Sicani' tribe, which colonized the island in the 15th century BC. It then came under the influence of the Phoenicians, who were one of the great naval powers in antiquity and they remained in control of around half the island until Roman times. The other important influence on Sicily was the Greeks, who lived there from around the 8th century to the 4th century BC. They were responsible for many of the most impressive buildings on the island and the city state of Syracuse was one of the most important states in the ancient world. It fell under Roman dominion after the Punic wars and would remain a part of the empire until it collapsed in the 5th century. Much of Sicily was controlled by the Byzantines directly after Rome's collapse and they were responsible for many of the incredible mosaics that can be found in places like Palermo. It was conquered by the Normans in the 11th century and they set up a remarkably enlightened monarchy that encouraged Sicilian culture and literature. Sicily then swapped between French and Spanish rule for the next 500 years, with various natural disasters such as volcanic eruptions and earthquakes destroying much of the incredible architecture and art that was on the island. It joined Italy upon the foundation of the nation in 1860 and has been a part of it ever since.

Resorts in Sicily

Sicily is such a diverse island. Its history is long and varied and this is reflected in the regional differences of the island. Starting with Palermo, the island’s capital. The dense and fiery city is a treasure chest of history, culture and architecture. Taormina is undoubtedly Sicily’s main tourist attraction, with its panoramic hill-side location and illustrious past, attracting artists, celebrities and aristocracy alike. Cefalù and Giardini Naxos are also popular sea-side towns and Siracusa and Ragusa are steeped in history, with both claiming a UNESCO World Heritage Site title. Mazara del Vallo shows a different side to Sicily with its strong north African influences.

Sardinia Holidays

A beautiful island perched off the edge of the Italian mainland, Sardinia combines a warm climate, gorgeous natural scenery and a rich history, making it the ideal romantic holiday destination. It is especially famous for its sheltered white sand beaches and turquoise waters, making it the perfect place for those seeking a traditional beach holiday. Sardinia is the second largest island in the Mediterranean and it's perhaps Italy's best kept secret for those who are not yet in the know. Sardinia is located in the Mediterranean with Italy to its right, Spain to its left and the French island of Corsica to the north.

“.....
Sardinia comes complete with sandy white beaches, crystal-clear turquoise waters and Supreme Luxury hotels

LOCATION

The island is large and situated off the Italian mainland in the Mediterranean Sea. It has almost 2000 kilometres of beautiful coastline, dotted with sandy beaches and fascinating marine caves, the centre of the island is more mountainous and is populated by impressive national parks. The capital of the island is the port town of Cagliari, a beautiful harbour town located on the sea. It is also famous for the large number of Bronze Age buildings and caves that are found throughout the island. Sardinia is fairly big with a population of around 1.6 million people.

WEATHER

Travelling to the island of Sardinia you can expect a warm Mediterranean climate, with the summer enjoying hot weather and the winter basking in milder weather. If you want to make the most of Sardinia's hot weather then it is best to visit in June, July and August. The temperature during this time averages in the mid-twenties and the sea is equally pleasant and warm, perfect for swimming and bathing. If you visit outside these months, then Spring and Autumn seasons are comfortable and warm, although there is a chance for rain and fresher temperatures.

CUISINE

Traditional Sardinian cuisine is a mixture of seafood and preserved meats that come from the rich agrarian tradition on the island. Visitors can enjoy dishes such as 'Pani Frattau' a traditional Sardinian pizza that is topped off with a poached egg; 'maialetto' a slow roasted piglet that is beautifully succulent; zuppa gallurese is a traditional Sardinian soup; while fregola, are small balls of pasta that are dressed using either seafood or meat. The island is equally good for desserts, including seadas, a delicious fritter flavoured with cheese and honey. Sardinia is also renowned for the quality of its wines.

HISTORY & CULTURE

Inhabited since around 6000 BC, there has been sporadic evidence of humans as far back as the Palaeolithic period. During antiquity the Phoenicians encroached upon the island, leading the islanders to turn to Carthage for help, becoming a vassal state until the Punic wars, where the Romans destroyed Carthage and took control of Sardinia. Upon the collapse of the empire, Sardinia, managed to avoid occupation by the invading Arab tribes that conquered many of the other islands in the Mediterranean. It remained independent during the medieval period, although it was politically allied to the Genoese city state. Sardinia tried to remain independent throughout the growth of large kingdoms in Europe, although that became difficult and it was eventually conquered by the Spaniards and became a part of the Kingdom of Aragon. It remained a part of the Spanish Crown until the Spanish War or Succession, in 1708, when it became a part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. It was then awarded to the Dukes of Savoy at the Treaty of London and remained an independent kingdom, (apart from a brief spell under Napoleon), until it joined the kingdom of Italy in 1861.

Resorts in Sardinia

Sardinia is an island that is renowned and revered for its sensational white sandy beaches and turquoise-green waters. It is little wonder then that most of Sardinia’s main tourist resorts make the most of this. Arguably Sardinia’s most popular tourist area and definitely its most glamorous is Costa Smeralda, ‘Emerald Coast’, in the north-east corner of the island. For mega-yachts, exclusive restaurants, bars and celebrity watching, this is the place to be. As you travel south along the island’s east coast, you will find equally beautiful towns and resorts but certainly less expensive, including Olbia, San Teodoro and in the south-east corner of Sardinia, Villasimius. All offer stunning beaches and come to life during the summer months. Southern Sardinia boasts some of the best beaches on the island and very exclusive hotels found in Chia and Santa Margherita di Pula. For those wanting a hit of true Sardinian culture and natural beauty, the inland town of Oliena is an ideal destination.

Terms & Conditions

1. OUR DETAILS

Cyplon Travel LTD (trading as Cyplon Holidays), 246 Green Lanes, London, N13 5XT. Telephone – 020 8340 7612 – E-mail – sales@cyplon.co.uk

2. YOUR HOLIDAY BOOKING

A booking will exist as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. This booking is made on the terms of these booking conditions. When you make a booking, you guarantee that you have the authority to accept & do accept on behalf of your party the terms of these booking conditions.

3. PAYING FOR YOUR HOLIDAY

Any prices shown in our brochure are for guidance only. We adopt a completely fluid method of pricing our holidays (ie our prices may change second by second to reflect ever changing airfares, hotel rates etc.). Additionally, Special Offers are subject to availability and applicable dates, and are subject to change. You will be advised of the current price of the holiday that you wish to book before your contract is confirmed. When you make a booking, you must pay a non-refundable deposit of £100 per person plus an agreed amount for flight seats purchased at time of booking. An additional non-refundable deposit will be required for a Wedding or Cruise & it may differ for a group booking. The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least 10 weeks before your departure date. If you are booking late i.e. within 10 weeks of departure, full payment will be required. If the deposit and/or balance is not paid in time, we shall cancel your travel arrangements. If the balance is not paid in time we shall retain your deposit.

4. IF YOU CANCEL YOUR HOLIDAY

You, or any member of your party, may cancel your travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the person who made the booking or your travel agent must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay cancellation charges as follows:

Period before departure in which you notify us:	Cancellation	Charge:
More than 70 days	Deposit only
70-57 days	30% of holiday cost or deposit if greater
56-29 days	50% of holiday cost or deposit if greater
28-15 days	70% of holiday cost or deposit if greater
14-8 days	90% of holiday cost or deposit if greater
7 days or less	100% of holiday cost

The above charges may differ for group bookings as well as special promotional offers & you will be advised at time of booking. Note: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges via your travel insurance company. You can cancel your booking without paying cancellation charges if the performance of your package, or the carriage of passengers to your destination, is significantly affected by unavoidable & extraordinary circumstances. In such circumstances, we will arrange for your booking to be terminated & for you to receive a full refund. We will observe advice provided by the UK Foreign & Commonwealth Office.

5. IF YOU CHANGE YOUR BOOKING

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible. Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking or your travel agent. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £25 per person, & any further cost we incur in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date that changes are made & you should contact us as soon as possible. Note: Certain travel arrangements may not be changeable after a reservation has been made & any alteration request could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements. Furthermore if your booking changes because someone in your party cancels, this may increase the overall cost of the holiday as it may be necessary to levy under-occupancy or single room supplements. You can transfer your booking to another person, who satisfies all the conditions that apply to this booking, by giving us notice in writing as soon as possible & no later than 7 days before departure. Both you & the new traveller are responsible for paying all costs we incur in making the transfer.

6. IF WE CANCEL OR CHANGE YOUR BOOKING

(a) Cancellation: We reserve the right to cancel your booking. We will not cancel less than 10 weeks before your departure date, except for unavoidable & extraordinary circumstances, or failure by you to pay the final balance. Unavoidable & extraordinary circumstances means a situation beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken. If your holiday is cancelled you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an alternative holiday of comparable standard from us if we offer one (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value).

In the event a refund is paid to you, we will:

1. Provide a full refund of your travel insurance premiums if you paid them to us & can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy.
2. Pay compensation as detailed below except where the cancellation is due to unavoidable & extraordinary circumstances (see definition above).

(b) Changes: (1) – Changes to the price

We can change your holiday price after you've booked, only in certain circumstances: Changes in transportation costs including the cost of fuel or other power sources, the level of taxes or fees imposed by third parties including tourist taxes, landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports & airports or exchange rates mean that the price of your travel arrangements may change after you have booked. However, there will be no change within 20 days of your departure. We will absorb, & you will not be charged for, any increase equivalent to 2% of the price of your travel arrangements, which excludes insurance premiums & any amendment charges. You will be charged for the amount over & above that plus an administration charge of £100 per person together with an amount to cover agent's commission. If this results in an increase equivalent to more than 8% of the price of your travel arrangements, you will have the option of accepting a change to another holiday if we are able to offer one (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value), or cancelling & receiving a full refund of all monies paid, except for any amendment charges. Should you decide to cancel: 1) you must do so within 14 days from the invoice 2) We will provide a refund of insurance premiums paid to us if you can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy. Should the price of your holiday go down due to the cost changes mentioned above, then any refund due will be paid to you. We will deduct from this refund our administrative expenses incurred. Please note that travel arrangements are not always purchased in local currency & some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your travel due to contractual & other protection in place.

In the unlikely event of a genuine costing error caused by either our reservations team or in house booking system, or appearing on your confirmation invoice, we reserve the right to amend accordingly. Similarly, we undertake to refund any overcharge caused by such an error.

(2) – Changes other than the price

It is a term of your booking that we are able to make changes to any aspect of your booking. If the change is insignificant, we will ensure that you are notified about it. Examples of insignificant changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same or higher standard, changes of carriers.

If we are constrained by circumstances beyond our control to alter significantly any of the main characteristics of the travel services that make up your package you will have the rights set out below.

- We will contact you or your travel agent & you will have the choice of accepting the change or having a refund of all monies paid. You can also accept an alternative holiday, where we offer one (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value). We will tell you the procedure for making your choice. Please read any notification of changes carefully & respond promptly as if you do not respond to us within the timescale given your booking may be cancelled.

• If you choose to accept a refund:

1. We will provide a full refund of your travel insurance premiums if you paid them to us & can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy.
2. We will pay compensation as detailed below except where the significant change is due to unavoidable & extraordinary circumstances, which means a situation beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken.

(c) Compensation if we cancel or make a major change to your booking
The compensation that we offer does not exclude you from claiming more if you are entitled to do so.

Period before departure in which we notify you:	Compensation From Us:
More than 70 days	NIL
70-57 days	£5
56-29 days	£10
28-15 days	£15
